FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS (FAQ)

Questions from Bio-Well Owners

1. Do I need to have a Bio-Well device before taking the training?

No, you don't need to own a Bio-Well device to take the course. The training will cover how to use Bio-Well from scratch, so both new and experienced users can benefit. However, having a Bio-Well device will help you practice alongside the sessions.

2. Which version of Bio-Well software will be used in the training?

We use the latest official Bio-Well software version available at the time of training. Any updates or changes will be discussed during the sessions.

3. Will I learn how to set up and calibrate my Bio-Well device?

Yes! The course includes step-by-step guidance on setting up, calibrating, and troubleshooting your Bio-Well device.

4. Is there a difference between Level 1 and Level 2 in Advanced Bio-Well Training?

Yes:

Level 1 covers basic Bio-Well usage, including scanning, interpreting reports, and energy field analysis.

Level 2 is more advanced, focusing on in-depth analysis, case studies, and troubleshooting techniques for accurate readings.

5. Can I use the Bio-Well device to analyze my clients after completing the course?

Yes, after completing the training, you will be fully equipped to analyze Bio-Well reports for yourself and clients.

6. Will I be able to generate and interpret Bio-Well reports independently after the training?

Yes! The training ensures you can confidently generate, interpret, and explain Bio-Well reports without external assistance.

7. What if I face issues with my Bio-Well device after the course? Is technical support provided?

Yes! Post-training support is available, including troubleshooting guidance and assistance with technical issues related to Bio-Well software and device usage.

8. Does this training cover how to explain Bio-Well readings to clients/patients?

Yes, the course teaches how to interpret and communicate Bio-Well reports effectively so that clients understand their energy balance and health insights.

9. Are there any case studies or real-time report analysis during the training?

Yes, the training includes live case studies and practical report analysis to help participants apply their knowledge in real-world scenarios.

10. Will I learn about the latest updates and research on Bio-Well?

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS (FAQ)

About Meridian Training & Its Connection to Bio-Well

1. How does the Meridian Course help me use my Bio-Well device more effectively?

The Meridian Course helps you understand the energy pathways of the body, making it easier to interpret Bio-Well readings and identify specific imbalances based on meridian flow.

2. Can I use Bio-Well to measure meridian imbalances?

Yes, Bio-Well provides indirect insights into meridian imbalances by analyzing energy levels in different organs and chakras.

3. How do I correlate chakra analysis with meridian readings?

The training will cover how chakra imbalances often indicate meridian disruptions and how to interpret the Bio-Well energy scan in alignment with the meridian system.

4. Will the training include live demonstrations of meridian corrections?

Yes! The Meridian Course includes live demonstrations of meridian stimulation techniques like Guasa, frequency-based corrections, and Bio-Well interventions.

5. Is it necessary to take the Meridian Course if I only want to use Bio-Well for energy scanning?

While not mandatory, the Meridian Course greatly enhances your ability to understand and interpret Bio-Well scans more accurately.

6. How can the Bio-Rhythmic Clock help me interpret Bio-Well reports better?

The Bio-Rhythmic Clock helps you understand which organ systems are most active or imbalanced at specific times of the day, allowing for better interpretation and targeted interventions.
